

The reason I have signed up for the no call list is to not be bothered by telemarketers. Just because they can afford lobbyists to push their agenda, does not mean it is right. Please do not allow them to push their way onto the consumer more than they already do.